A limited cooperative association governed by this chapter is subject to any amendment or repeal of this chapter.

Enacted by Chapter 363, 2008 General Session

16-16-104. Nature of limited cooperative association.

(1) A limited cooperative association organized under this chapter is an autonomous, unincorporated association of persons united to meet their mutual interests through a jointly owned enterprise primarily controlled by those persons, which permits combining:

(a) ownership, financing, and receipt of benefits by the members for whose interests the association is formed; and

(b) separate investments in the association by members who may receive returns on their investments and a share of control.

(2) The fact that a limited cooperative association does not have one or more of the characteristics described in Subsection (1) does not alone prevent the association from being formed under and governed by this chapter nor does it alone provide a basis for an action against the association.

Enacted by Chapter 363, 2008 General Session

16-16-105. Purpose and duration of limited cooperative association.

(1) A limited cooperative association is an entity distinct from its members.

(2) A limited cooperative association may be organized for any lawful purpose, whether or not for profit, except for the operation of a financial institution as defined in Section 7-1-103.

(3) Unless the articles of organization state a term for a limited cooperative association's existence, the association has perpetual duration.

Enacted by Chapter 363, 2008 General Session

16-16-106. Powers.

A limited cooperative association may sue and be sued in its own name and do all things necessary or convenient to carry on its activities. An association may maintain an action against a member for harm caused to the association by the member's violation of a duty to the association or of the organic law or organic rules.

Enacted by Chapter 363, 2008 General Session

16-16-107. Governing law.

The law of this state governs:

- (1) the internal affairs of a limited cooperative association; and
- (2) the liability of a member as member and a director as director for the debts, obligations, or other liabilities of a limited cooperative association.

Enacted by Chapter 363, 2008 General Session

16-16-108. Supplemental principles of law.

Unless displaced by particular provisions of this chapter, the principles of law and equity supplement this chapter.

Enacted by Chapter 363, 2008 General Session

16-16-109. Requirements of other laws.

(1) This chapter does not alter or amend any law that governs the licensing and regulation of an individual or entity in carrying on a specific business or profession even if that law permits the business or profession to be conducted by a limited cooperative association, a foreign cooperative, or its members.

(2) A limited cooperative association may not conduct an activity that, under law of this state other than this chapter, may be conducted only by an entity that meets specific requirements for the internal affairs of that entity unless the organic rules of the association conform to those requirements.

Enacted by Chapter 363, 2008 General Session

16-16-110. Relation to restraint of trade and antitrust laws.

To the extent a limited cooperative association or activities conducted by the association in this state meet the material requirements for other cooperatives entitled to an exemption from or immunity under any provision of the restraint of trade or antitrust laws of this state, the association and its activities are entitled to the exemption or immunity. This section does not create any new exemption or immunity for an association or affect any exemption or immunity provided to a cooperative organized under any other law.

Enacted by Chapter 363, 2008 General Session

The application shall set forth the name and address of the applicant and the name proposed to be reserved. If the division finds that the name applied for is available under Section 16-16-111, the division shall reserve the name for the applicant's exclusive use for a nonrenewable period of 120 days.

(2) A person that has reserved a name for a limited cooperative association may transfer the reservation to another person by delivering to the division a signed notice of the transfer which states the name, street address, and, if different, the mailing address of the transferee. (a) set forth in the organic rules and the member records of the association; and

(b) conspicuously noted on any certificates evidencing a member's interest.

(5) A transferee of a member's financial rights, to the extent the rights are transferred, has the right to share in the allocation of profits or losses and to receive the distributions to the member transferring the interest to the same extent as the transferring member.

(6) A transferee of a member's financial rights does not become a member upon transfer of the rights unless the transferee is admitted as a member by the limited cooperative association.

(7) A limited cooperative association need not give effect to a transfer under this section until the association has notice of the transfer.

(8) A transfer of a member's financial rights in violation of a restriction on transfer contained in the organic rules is ineffective as to a person having notice of the restriction at the time of transfer.

Amended by Chapter 378, 2010 General Session

16-16-604. Security interest and set-off.

(1) A member or transferee may create an enforceable security interest in its financial rights in a limited cooperative association.

(2) Unless the organic rules otherwise provide, a member may not create an enforceable security interest in the member's governance rights in a limited cooperative association.

(3) The organic rules may provide that a limited cooperative association has a security interest in the financial rights of a member to secure payment of any indebtedness or other obligation of the member to the association. A security interest provided for in the organic rules is enforceable under, and governed by, Title 70A, Chapter 9a, Uniform Commercial Code - Secured Transactions.

(4) Unless the organic rules otherwise provide, a member may not compel the limited cooperative association to offset financial rights against any indebtedness or obligation owed to the association.

Enacted by Chapter 363, 2008 General Session

16-16-605. Charging orders for judgment creditor of member or transferee.

(1) On application by a judgment creditor of a member or transferee, a court may enter a charging order against the financial rights of the judgment debtor for the unsatisfied amount of the judgment. A charging order issued under this Subsection (1) constitutes a lien on the judgment debtor's financial rights and requires the limited cooperative association to pay over to the creditor or receiver, to the extent necessary to satisfy the judgment, any distribution that would otherwise be paid to the judgment debtor.

(2) To the extent necessary to effectuate the collection of distributions pursuant to a charging order under Subsection (1), the court may:

(a) appoint a receiver of the share of the distributions due or to become due to the judgment debtor under the judgment debtor's financial rights, with the power to make all inquiries the judgment debtor might have made; and

(b) make all other orders that the circumstances of the case may require to give effect to the charging order.

(3) Upon a showing that distributions under a charging order will not pay the judgment debt within a reasonable time, the court may foreclose the lien and order the sale of the financial rights. The purchaser at the foreclosure sale obtains only the financial rights that are subject to the charging order, does not thereby become a member, and is subject to Section 16-16-603.

(4) At any time before a sale pursuant to a foreclosure, a member or transferee whose financial rights are subject to a charging order under Subsection (1) may extinguish the charging order by satisfying the judgment and filing a certified copy of the satisfaction with the court that issued the charging order.

(5) At any time before sale pursuant to a foreclosure, the limited cooperative association or one or more members whose financial rights are not subject to the charging order may pay to the judgment creditor the full amount due under the judgment and succeed to the rights of the judgment creditor, including the charging order. Unless the organic rules otherwise provide, the association may act under this Subsection (5) only with the consent of all members whose financial rights are not subject to the charging order.

(6) This chapter does not deprive any member or transferee of the benefit of any exemption laws applicable to the member's or transferee's financial rights.

(7) This section provides the exclusive remedy by which a judgment creditor of a member or transferee may satisfy the judgment from the member's or transferee's financial rights.

Enacted by Chapter 363, 2008 General Session

16-16-701. Authority.

In this part, "marketing contract" means a contract between a limited cooperative association and another person, that need not be a patron member:

(1) requiring the other person to sell, or deliver for sale or marketing on the person's behalf, a specified part of the person's products, commodities, or goods exclusively to or through the association or any facilities furnished by the association; or

(2) authorizing the association to act for the person in any manner with respect to the products, commodities, or goods.

Enacted by Chapter 363, 2008 General Session

16-16-702. Marketing contracts.

(1) If a marketing contract provides for the sale of products, commodities, or goods to a limited cooperative association, the sale transfers title to the association upon delivery or at any other specific time expressly provided by the contract.

(2) A marketing contract may:

(a) authorize a limited cooperative association to create an enforceable security interest in the products, commodities, or goods delivered; and

(b) allow the association to sell the products, commodities, or goods delivered and pay the sales price on a pooled or other basis after deducting selling costs, processing costs, overhead, expenses, and other charges.

(3) Some or all of the provisions of a marketing contract between a patron member and a limited cooperative association may be contained in the organic rules.

Enacted by Chapter 363, 2008 General Session

16-16-703. Duration of marketing contract.

The initial duration of a marketing contract may not exceed 10 years, but the contract may be self-renewing for additional periods not exceeding five years each. Unless the contract provides for another manner or time for termination, either party may terminate the contract by giving notice in a record at least 90 days before the end of the current term.

Enacted by Chapter 363, 2008 General Session

16-16-704. Remedies for breach of contract.

(1) Damages to be paid to a limited cooperative association for breach or anticipatory repudiation of a marketing contract may be liquidated, but only at an amount or under a formula that is reasonable in light of the actual or anticipated harm caused by the breach or repudiation. A provision that so provides is not a penalty.

(2) Upon a breach of a marketing contract, whether by anticipatory repudiation or otherwise, a limited cooperative association may seek:

- (a) an injunction to prevent further breach; and
- (b) specific performance.

(3) The remedies in this section are in addition to any other remedies available to an association under law other than this chapter.

(3) An individual is not an agent for a limited cooperative association solely by being a director.

Amended by Chapter 378, 2010 General Session

16-16-802. No liability as director for limited cooperative association's obligations.

A debt, obligation, or other liability of a limited cooperative association is solely that of the association and is not a debt, obligation, or liability of a director solely by reason of being a director. An individual is not personally liable, directly or indirectly, for an obligation of an association solely by reason of being a director.

Enacted by Chapter 363, 2008 General Session

16-16-803. Qualifications of directors.

Initial directors need not be members.

(2) Unless the organic rules otherwise provide, a director may be an officer or employee of the limited cooperative association.

(3) If the organic rules provide for nonmember directors, the number of nonmember directors may not exceed:

- (a) one, if there are two through four directors;

- (ii) two, if there are four or five directors;
- (iii) three, if there are six through eight directors; or
- (iv) 1/3 of the directors if there are at least nine directors; and

(b) a majority of the board of directors shall be elected exclusively by patron members.

(2) Unless the organic rules otherwise provide, if a limited cooperative association has investor members, the directors who are not elected exclusively by patron members are elected by the investor members.

(3) Subject to Subsection (1), the organic rules may provide for the election of all or a specified number of directors by one or more districts or classes of members.

(4) Subject to Subsection (1), the organic rules may provide for the nomination or election of directors by districts or classes, directly or by district delegates.

(5) If a class of members consists of a single member, the organic rules may provide for the member to appoint a director or directors.

(6) Unless the organic rules otherwise provide, cumulative voting for directors is prohibited.

(7) Except as otherwise provided by the organic rules, Subsection (5), or Sections 16-16-303, 16-16-516, 16-16-517, and 16-16-809, member directors shall be elected at an annual members meeting.

(2) Unless the organic rules otherwise provide, a director may be reelected.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (4), a director continues to serve until a successor director is elected or appointed and qualifies or the director is removed, resigns, is adjudged incompetent, or dies.

(4) Unless the organic rules otherwise provide, a director does not serve the remainder of the director's term if the director ceases to qualify to be a director.

Enacted by Chapter 363, 2008 General Session

16-16-806. Resignation of director.

A director may resign at any time by giving notice in a record to the limited cooperative association. Unless the notice states a later effective date, a resignation is effective when the notice is received by the association.

Enacted by Chapter 363, 2008 General Session

16-16-807. Removal of director.

Unless the organic rules otherwise provide, the following rules apply:

(1) Members may remove a director with or without cause.

(2) A member or members holding at least 10% of the total voting power entitled to be voted in the election of a director may demand removal of the director by one or more signed petitions submitted to the officer of the limited cooperative association charged with keeping its records.

(3) Upon receipt of a petition for removal of a director, an officer of the association or the board of directors shall:

(a) call a special meeting of members to be held not later than 90 days after receipt of the petition by the association; and

(b) mail or otherwise transmit or deliver in a record to the members entitled to vote on the removal, and to the director to be removed, notice of the meeting which complies with Section 16-16-508.

- (a) fraudulent conduct with respect to the association or its members;
- (b) gross abuse of the position of director;
- (c) intentional or reckless infliction of harm on the association; or
- (d) any other behavior, act, or omission as provided by the organic rules.

(2) A suspension under Subsection (1) is effective for 30 days unless the board of directors calls and gives notice of a special meeting of members for removal of the director before the end of the 30-day period in which case the suspension is effective until adjournment of the meeting or the director is removed.

Enacted by Chapter 363, 2008 General Session

16-16-809. Vacancy on board.

(1) Unless the organic rules otherwise provide, a vacancy on the board of directors shall be filled:

(a) within a reasonable time by majority vote of the remaining directors until the next annual members meeting or a special meeting of members called to fill the vacancy; and

(b) for the unexpired term by members at the next annual members meeting or a special meeting of members called to fill the vacancy.

(2) Unless the organic rules otherwise provide, if a vacating director was elected or appointed by a class of members or a district:

(a) the new director shall be of that class or district; and

(b) the selection of the director for the unexpired term shall be conducted in the same manner as would the selection for that position without a vacancy.

(3) If a member appointed a vacating director, the organic rules may provide for that member to appoint a director to fill the vacancy.

Amended by Chapter 378, 2010 General Session

Enacted by Chapter 363, 2008 General Session

16-16-812. Action without meeting.

(2) If a quorum of the board of directors is present at the beginning of a meeting, any action taken by the directors present is valid even if withdrawal of directors originally present results in the number of directors being fewer than the number required for a quorum.

(3) A director present at a meeting but objecting to notice under Subsection 16-16-814(2)(a) or (b) does not count toward a quorum.

Enacted by Chapter 363, 2008 General Session

(2) Unless the organic rules otherwise provide, all profits and losses of a limited cooperative association shall be allocated to patron members.

(3) If a limited cooperative association has investor members, the organic rules may not reduce the allocation to patron members to less than 50% of profits. For purposes of this Subsection (3), the following rules apply:

- (a) an unallocated capital reserve; and
- (b) reasonable unallocated reserves for specific purposes, including expansion and replacement of capital assets; education, training, cooperative development; creation and distribution of information concerning principles of cooperation; and community responsibility.

Enacted by Chapter 363, 2008 General Session

16-16-1007. Limitations on distributions.

(1) A limited cooperative association may not make a distribution if, after the distribution:

ordinary course of the association's activities; or

(2) A limited cooperative association may base a determination that a distribution is not prohibited under Subsection (1) on financial statements prepared on the basis of accounting practices and principles that are reasonable in the circumstances or on a fair valuation or other method that is reasonable in the circumstances.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (4), the effect of a distribution allowed under Subsection (2) is measured:

(a) in the case of distribution by purchase, redemption, or other acquisition of financial rights in the limited cooperative association, as of the date money or other property is transferred or debt is incurred by the association; and

(b) in all other cases, as of the date:

(i) the distribution is authorized, if the payment occurs not later than 120 days after that date; or

(ii) the payment is made, if payment occurs more than 120 days after the distribution is authorized.

(4) If indebtedness is issued as a distribution, each payment of principal or interest on the indebtedness is treated as a distribution, the effect of which is measured on the date the payment is made.

(5) For purposes of this section, "distribution" does not include reasonable amounts paid to a member in the ordinary course of business as payment or compensation for commodities, goods, past or present services, or reasonable payments made in the ordinary course of business under a bona fide retirement or other benefits program.

(a) implead in the action any other director who is liable under Subsection (1) and compel contribution from the person; and

(b) implead in the action any person that is liable under Subsection (2) and compel contribution from the person in the amount the person received as described in Subsection (2).

- (a) breaches an express provision of the organic rules; or
- (b) occurs before the termination of the limited cooperative association and:
  - (i) the person is expelled as a member under Subsection (4)(c) or (d); or
  - (ii) in the case of a person that is not an individual, trust other than a business trust, or estate, the person is expelled or otherwise dissociated as a member because it dissolved or terminated in bad faith.
